To Advertisers.—The Vermont Daily Transcript has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

HILL AND SAFFORD have removed their Law Office to Driscoll's new block, on Lake Street.

HON. J. S. MORRILL again has our thanks for "Pub. Doc's."

Mr. C. R. Ray, of Hinesburgh, harvested winter wheat, well ripened and dried, on the 18th of July.

The church edifice at Sutton has been altered and repaired, and is to be dedicated on Thursday August 6th. W. L. Noyes is to be ordained on the same day.

REMOVED.—The St. Albans Town Library has been removed from Farrar's Block to the second story of Barnes' Block, Lake Street adjoining the TRANSCRIPT Office. The room is large and is, we think, in every particular more convenient than the old one.

THE Merrimack street Baptist Church of Manchester, N. H., has extended an urgent call to Rev. N. Pierce, formerly of Bellows Falls, to become its pastor which he declines. He also declines a call to Virginia City, Nevada.

HALF FARE.—Persons attending the first and third District Conventions who pay full fare on the Vermont Central, will receive free return certificates by applying to the secretaries of the Conventions.

PERSONAL.—Virginia A. Townsend, the American authoress, is staying at the Broad Leaf Inn, Ripton, Vt.
Senator Sheridan is passing a few days at Norwalk, Conn., his native place.

WILLIAM TRUMBULL, a brakeman employed on the Rutland and Washington Railroad, fell from a freight train near Cambridge, N. Y., Thursday morning and was instantly killed. He resided in Salem and leaves a widowed mother, of whom he was the only support.

ST. ALBANS Lodge No. 32, I. O. G. T. held its election of officers last evening for the coming quarter. The following is the full list of elective officers chosen: Almerin Tinker, W. C. T.; Miss Mary Burgess, W. V. T.; Myron B. Olmsted, W. S.; Marshall E. Wright, W. T. S.; Frank R. Carpenter, W. M.; Mrs. Benjamin Graves, W. T.; Miss Anna E. Curtis, W. I. G.; Edward E. Watson, W. O. G.

A NICE PRESENT.—Mr. H. C. Ide, for the past two years Principal of St. Johnsbury Academy, has resigned his position and accepted that of Principal of the Cutting High School, in West Cambridge, Mass. The Caledonian says: Among his many pupils there are eight young men upon whom Mr. Ide has spared no pains to make critical scholars. These young men last week passed a very fine examination for admission to Dartmouth College, which they propose to enter in the fall. On Mr. Ide's return to St. Johnsbury on Saturday last, he found three elegant volumes of Longfellow's unique version of Dante's Divine Comedy. None but a teacher who has labored for the good of his pupils can fully appreciate the significance of such a gift. Its value, although in this case rare, is nothing compared with the rich token of affection and esteem which it signifies. As he goes to his new field of labor, our best wishes attend him.

PASSENGER RAILROAD.—The receipts of the Connecticut and Passumpsic Rivers Railroad for the past year were $40,808, of which $170,172 were from passengers and $302,418 freight. The company has paid 6 per cent. during the last year, and is the only road in Vermont that is paying dividends. It is expected that the connection of the road from its northern terminus to the Grand Trunk will be commenced soon, giving a connection by rail with Quebec and Montreal. The stock of this company has advanced 20 per cent. within the last year and a half.

OUR SOUTHERN LETTER.—The letter from Charleston, S. C., in our columns to-day, will be read with much interest, as portraying vividly the political feeling in that reconstructed locality of the Union. The feeling of the South Carolina Democracy does not seem to be much different from the feeling which obtained through the South during the rebellion. It may be natural, in the South, but it is not therefore a cordial Union feeling, or one which would uphold very cordially the cause of the Union, now triumphant if sustained as there is reason to expect it will be in the coming election. As an index of Southern feeling the letter is a valuable contribution.

WILLISTON CHEESE FACTORY.—The Burlington Times says that the cheese factory at North Williston, owned by Edwin Crane and David Brown, sold 200 cheese on Wednesday, at 14½ cents per pound. This is a little better price for cheese than we have yet published. The factory is under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Waller, late of Shelton, who have had large experience in cheese making.

PATENTS.—On the 28th inst., patents were issued to the following Vermonters: Volney M. Thomas, of Brandon, for improvement in culinary apparatus; Lafayette Lyons, of Bennington, for improvement in water-wheels; Dennis Lane, of Montpelier, for improvement in head blocks for saw-mills.

BURLINGTON.—The vestry of St. Paul's Church have secured the services of Prof. S. B. Whitney, as organist at that church, in place of W. S. Rogers, who has temporarily held the place since the departure of Mr. S. C. Moore for California.

Moderic Lanetot, editor of the Independent Canadian, of Montreal, addressed the St. John Baptist Society of Burlington, on Thursday evening last. Mr. L. is an earnest French Republican, and came within a few votes, two years since, of defeating the election of Mr. Cartier, the Prime Minister of Canada, to the Dominion.

Gratula's celebrated "National Guard Band" will give the annual "Commemoration Concert" at the City Hall on Tuesday evening of next week.

THE THIRD DISTRICT.—The Vermont Standard says:

The republicans of the Third District hold their convention, for the nomination of member of Congress and elector at Stowe, on the 12th of August. There is not to be any opposition, so far as appears, and we certainly hope not, to the renomination of the present member, Hon. W. C. Smith, of St. Albans.

The Free Press a few days since spoke in similar terms respecting the anticipated action of the convention. No opposition is contemplated to Mr. Smith's renomination, we presume. There is no ground for opposition to proceed upon. Mr. Smith's course, as far as we know, has been entirely satisfactory to a large majority in the District.

The Times says:—In the case of Charles H. Potter and wife, Chief Justice Pierpont reduced the amount of bail to $2,500 each, for which Mr. Potter's cousin, Jackson Potter, of Shelton, became security, and Potter and wife were released. They were, however, at once arrested for having burglar's tools in their possession, and on a hearing before Justice Hollenbeck, held to bail on the sum of 2,500 each on this charge. Jackson Potter became security for Mrs. Potter and she was released; but Chas. H. Potter, not finding a bondsman, was remanded to jail, to await examination next Friday week.

Alfred Bertrand was sentenced by Justice Sherman to the Reform School to-day, for two years, for larceny of seven dollars, out of the store of H. L. Samson & Co.

STATE MATTERS.—The vagabonds in Bennington, on Saturday evening last, way-laid an estimable young lady, while going home from the village, attempting to force her into a carriage. Great violence was used, and the clothing of the young lady badly torn; but her screams brought help, when the scoundrels drove off. Scouting parties brought in two of them, who are in jail, failing to obtain $1000 bonds each. The other will yet be found. Great indignation is felt, and the citizens could scarcely be restrained from violence.

The people of Derby are erecting a very large and commodious building for an Academy near the old one. When completed it will be the finest school building in the County of Orleans.

Persons attending the coming Commencement of the University of Vermont, and paying full fare on the railroad and steamboat lines, will receive free return tickets, signed by the Secretary of the Alumni.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Russell has lately received the degree of D. D. from Harvard College, Geneva, N. Y., of which he was Trustee for many years. Norwich University, Vt., first gave him this degree some years since.

Mr. W. N. Baehder, of Castleton, has since the 1st of June, 1867, sold on commission over half a million pounds of wool, and in the same time has built one dwelling-house, superintended the erection of the new Liberal church edifice, to which he gave $500, and is now building a spacious three-story hotel on the site of the old Mansion House.

There will be a trial of Reaping Machines on the farm of Ezra Meach, in Shelburne, on Tuesday next, (August 4th), at one o'clock in the afternoon.

Hon. E. D. Briggs, a venerable and prominent citizen of Rochester, Windsor Co., died on Monday evening, after a brief but severe illness, aged 85 years. Judge Briggs was the father-in-law of Albert Clarke, Esq., of St. Albans.

Personal and Political.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Howard are stopping for a few days at the American House in Burlington.

The Chittenden County Democrats hold their convention at Essex Junction, Saturday, August 15th.

At the Rutland Republican caucus held Friday evening, Lorenzo Sheldon, George A. Merrill, T. E. Mantley, A. H. Post, B. R. Greene, N. P. Simons, A. A. Nicholson and J. C. Dunn were elected delegates to the Congressional Convention. The delegation is in favor of Hon. Seneca M. Dorr, and was elected over the ticket supported by the friends of Col. Veazey by 130 majority.

Rev. N. G. Clark, D. D., of Boston, has been elected a member of the Board of Trustees of Mount Holyoke Seminary.

The managers of the Indiana Democracy have twice declined the offer of Frank Blair to stump that state.

Both parties have completed their Congressional nominations in Indiana. Since the last election the District has been reappointed. The following table gives the names of the candidates and the majorities in each District at the election in 1863:

District	Republican	Democrat	Majority
1st	James C. Yeoch	Wm. E. Smith	202
2d	Walter C. Washburn	John C. Kerr	1181
3d	Robert C. Lamb	Wm. E. Smith	1426
4th	George W. Allen	John C. Kerr	1547
5th	John C. Kerr	John W. Rogers	2192
6th	Wm. E. Smith	John C. Kerr	1175
7th	John C. Kerr	John W. Rogers	1074
8th	John C. Kerr	John W. Rogers	1044
9th	John C. Kerr	John W. Rogers	1155
10th	John C. Kerr	John W. Rogers	256
11th	John C. Kerr	John W. Rogers	2366

Ernest Corning, of Albany, is talked of in connection with the Democratic nomination for Governor of New York.

But little more than a year ago, the New York World, now full of scurrilous attacks on the same man, said:

"Of the steadiness and staunchness of General Grant's patriotism, or the uprightness and solidity of his character, no man in the country doubts or affects to doubt. * * * On the score of loyalty and solid public services no man in the country can come in this competition with this illustrious soldier. * * * The Presidency can be nothing to him; he has a more valuable office. But if, in the hands of Providence, he could be an instrument for tranquilizing the country, this is an honor for which he could afford to sacrifice ease, congenial pursuits, and the possibilities of still greater fame as a soldier."

The New York Times says:—"The Democrats must not be too sure of Mr. Seward being one of Mr. Seymour's political friends and supporters. We trust that at the proper time the voice of the eminent statesman of New York will be heard in regard to public questions and the necessity of the election of General Grant."

The Irish Republican says with eminent good sense: "Irishmen in American politics must work from the American standpoint, and remember that it is their citizenship that entitles them to vote and shout, and not the fact of their being born in Ireland."

A New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says: "At a private Democratic gathering, on Saturday evening, several ward politicians accused Belmont and others of lukewarmness in the cause, and a reluctance to give pecuniary aid. Belmont is understood to fear repudiation as the policy of the Democracy, and prophesies financial trouble if Seymour is elected."

An Illinois correspondent, reviewing the prospects of the State campaign, claims 50,000 majority for Grant and Colfax.

SENATOR BUCKALEW, it will be remembered, attempted to explain away Blair's letter into propositions perfectly harmless. The Richmond Examiner's ire, roused at this apology, thus breaks forth:

If this is the mode in which the platform is to be vindicated and defended, it would be better to hold another Convention, and call it in. Better strike a flag than defend it in such a fashion. And if this is the kind of battle which the Democratic champions are to lead, they might as well abandon the field, for they are whipped already. The South, at least, needs something when they protest against negro-suffrage, except devotion to infidelity, and as eternal war and not peace!"

IMPORTANT DECISION.—The General Term of the Supreme Court of the Fourth District of N. Y. State has, by the decision lately rendered in the suit of Wm. A. Russell, of Salem, against Mr. Burton of Danvers, decided that claims for lobby services are valid. Mr. Russell asked Mr. Burton in effecting a sale of an ore bed to the State, but the defendant denied that any promise to pay had been made, and if there were, it was void on grounds of public policy. The case was first tried in 1865, and the Supreme Court has affirmed the judgment.

LATEST NEWS!

Howing to the rain storm the telegraphic wires refuse to give us any news to-day.—EDS. TRANSCRIPT.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED, whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cure requires prompt treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thin, milky, or frothy, or is itropy on setting? Or does it stick across the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing, or dyspnea? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, morose, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as confident in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have your bowels regular. Your sick weak, your bowels weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy or nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they do not become sad and discouraged; they are always bold and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and then right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of adulterates and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in the organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—dyspepsia, lameness, paralysis, spinal affections, and almost every other form of disease, which humanity is heir to, and the great cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic. HELMHOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT (BUCHU) is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.
